

LEARNING TO SHARE AND TRUST

THE AIM OF THE GAME “SHARE&TRUST”

The aim of the game “Share&Trust” is to motivate participants to take new point of view on different parts of their life and share:

1. relationships,
2. creativity,
3. values,
4. growth,
5. emotions,
6. individuality,
7. responsibility,
8. interests.

CONTENT OF THE GAME

Under each of these groups there are 15 questions that helps participant to discover more about each category of their lives.

In total 120 questions were created.

QUESTIONS

HOW IT WORKS?

- The participants have to answer the questions from various categories, they have to express their experience, attitude and define for themselves what is the most important.
- The game also allows to use the questions in order to promote the dialogue between participants, thus fostering the tolerance, ability to listen, as well to compare what has been said to own experience, which leads to learning.
- By the use of the game the participants are being actively engaged in the learning process in order to raise their interest and participation.

HOW TO USE THE GAME?

Answering questions individually with consultant or in groups of 5 – 8 people.

Help and encourage participants to share and trust and to discover more about themselves and others.

LETS TRY SOME QUESTIONS!
